Foster Youth Bill of Rights and Reasonable and Prudent Parent Standard Training

- This training will be an interactive experience that teaches participants about the Foster Youth Bill of Rights and Reasonable and Prudent Parent Standard (RPPS).

Participants will learn about:

- the role and duties of the Office of the Foster Care Ombudsman,
- the Foster Youth Bill of Rights, and
- Reasonable and Prudent Parent Standard.

Participants will feel empowered to:

- make parenting decisions that will uphold the rights and promote the positive development and well-being of youth in care and
- utilize the office as a resource to advocate for youth when a right has been violated.

Join us virtually on the first Thursday of every other month!

This training is for...

Resource parents, Short-Term Residential Treatment Program (STRTP) staff, Social workers, Probation officers, RFA/FFA staff, CASAs, Educational staff, and Anyone working with youth in care!
